Built around 20 years ago, the property enjoys stunning views to the front across the Cairngorm Mountains, with additional outlooks to the rear towards the Craigellachie Nature Reserve.

At the heart of the home is a spacious and inviting living area, complete with a wood-burning stove, which flows seamlessly into a bright, modern kitchen. Both bedrooms are generously sized doubles, featuring fitted wardrobes, with the master bedroom further benefiting from an en-suite shower room. A well-appointed family bathroom, incorporating a cupboard housing the hot water tank and providing laundry storage, completes the accommodation.

Additional features include timber double glazing, electric economy heating, and a loft hatch with ladder access to a floored loft space, offering excellent additional storage.
